

It was the day of Bonfire night and

I was taken to see the scintillating light,

Little did I now it was going to be a terrifying night,

I got pushed in a pram to see the light, but then I got a mighty fright,

BOOM, BLAST, CRACKLE!

I heard an ear piercing sound of ghosts, ghouls and cackles.

I whimpered and tried to hold on to dear life when my mum came to rescue my plight,

She asked me to enjoy the sight which was so bright in height.
